

CIMP Privacy Policy

Privacy Policy for Chaplaincy Training

Introduction

This Privacy Policy outlines how (Christians in the Marketplace (CIMP) collects, uses, and protects the personal information of individuals who participate in our chaplaincy training programs. We are committed to safeguarding your privacy and ensuring that your personal information is handled in accordance with applicable data protection laws.

Information We Collect

We may collect the following personal information from you:

- Contact information: Name, email address, phone number, and mailing address.
- Educational background: Academic degrees, certifications, and relevant coursework.
- Training history: Previous chaplaincy training or experience.
- Payment information: Credit card or other payment details (if applicable).
- Other information: As you provided through forms, applications, or correspondence.

How We Collect Information

We collect information directly from you when you:

- Apply for our chaplaincy training programs.
- Participate in our training courses or workshops.
- Interact with our website or social media channels.
- Provide feedback or inquiries.

How We Use Your Information

We may use your personal information for the following purposes:

CHRISTIANS in the MARKETPLACE

- Administering our training programs: Processing applications, managing registrations, and providing course materials.
- Communicating with you: Sending updates, reminders, and important information related to the training.
- Evaluating and improving our programs: Gathering feedback and conducting research.
- Processing payments: Handling financial transactions associated with the training.
- Complying with legal requirements: Adhering to applicable laws and regulations.

Sharing Your Information

We may share your personal information with:

- Our instructors and staff: To facilitate training delivery and provide support.
- Third-party service providers: Assist us with administrative tasks like payment processing or email delivery.
- Law enforcement authorities: If required by law or to protect our rights.

Data Security

We implement appropriate technical and organizational measures to protect your personal information from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction. However, no method of transmission over the Internet or electronic storage is entirely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

Your Rights

You may have certain rights regarding your personal information, including:

- Access: You may request access to the personal information we hold about you.
- Rectification: You may request that we correct any inaccurate or incomplete information.
- Erasure: You may request that we delete your personal information under certain circumstances.

CHRISTIANS in the MARKETPLACE

- Restriction of processing: Under certain circumstances, you may request that we restrict the processing of your personal information.
- Data portability: You may request that we transfer your personal information to another organization in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format.
- Object to processing: You may object to processing your personal information for certain purposes.

To exercise your rights, please contact us using the information provided below.

Contact Us

If you have any questions or concerns about our Privacy Policy or the handling of your personal information, please contact us at:
(336) 553-6257.

Christians in the Marketplace

(336) 553-6257

PO Box 14335
Greensboro, NC 27415

Email Us

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may occasionally update this Privacy Policy to reflect changes in our practices or legal requirements. We encourage you to review it periodically for any updates.

Effective Date

This Privacy Policy is effective as of August 21, 2024